

1 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Yes.

2 MR. HONIG: I don't know whether you would prefer to
3 receive this as a written motion, perhaps you'd entertain it
4 orally.

5 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Let's see what it is.

6 MR. HONIG: The Spanish American League Against
7 Discrimination will find it necessary to proceed if Your Honor
8 would allow it, in forma pauperis. Its budget had not
9 anticipated the scope or designation in fact of this hearing.
10 And to the extent that we might be able to receive transcripts
11 without charges, so forth, it would be helpful to our 12 participation.

13 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Well, I don't have the authority to,
14 as far as I know, I don't have the authority to require that 15 the reporting company give you free transcripts. Do you know
16 what the procedure is?

17 MR. SHOOK: Your Honor, I haven't dealt with this 18 situation before, I don't know what the procedure may be.

19 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Do you know what the procedure is, Mr.
20 Honig?

21 MR. HONIG: I haven't dealt with it in years, there is 22 a rule that permits it. And I think the Commission's Counsel,
23 the only time I've encountered this, which was years ago,
24 provides a copy of the transcript that it has received from 25 the reporting company.

1 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Well, that's something to work out
2 with the Bureau. But if there are rules on it, then -- I have
3 never dealt with it either, but if there is a rule that gives
4 me the authority --

5 MR. HONIG: Your Honor, there is such a rule.

6 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Pardon me?

7 MR. HONIG: There is a rule that covers the situation.

8 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Does it give the Judge authority to 9 order the reporting company to give free copies of 10 transcripts?

11 MR. HONIG: Your Honor, I'm simply aware that the rule
12 exists. I don't know what the rule says.

13 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Well, if you can't work out something
14 amicably with the Bureau, and if there is a rule, and for me
15 -- if there's something for me to rule on, then I'll rule on 16 it.

17 MR. HONIG: Very well, thank you.

18 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Anything else the parties want to 19 discuss at this time?

20 MR. COHEN: No, sir.

21 JUDGE CHACHKIN: All right. So where we are is the 22 parties are going to meet on June 11th, they're going to 23 submit a report to me, outlining the schedule, which they 24 agree to. The schedule, what the parties indicate here, that 25 the report will only outline the schedule for the filing of

1 objections to the document requests and the production of
2 documents. What I have in mind is that the schedule that the
3 parties will submit to me will have the full schedule
4 including the hearing date.

5 Now, with respect to any issues as sought against
6 Glendale, you pointed out that your reply is due when, the end
7 of -- the middle of this month?

8 MR. MAY: I believe it's due the 17th, Your Honor.

9 JUDGE CHACHKIN: Well, I would expect to be able to 10 rule on the motion to dismiss by early July. And if any 11 issues were added, I would envision that those issues would be 12 tried at the same time that the other issues in this case are 13 tried. And that -- well, depending on my ruling, but that 14 discovery would go for would also, in the time interval.

15 In other words. I don't envision a bifurcated hearing.
